

POSTCARDS FROM SICILY

Illustration / speculative storytelling / visual research. 2021-ongoing

Postcards from Sicily is an ongoing body of work that reimagines monstrous, animal, and mythological figures traditionally used to demonize women, queers, and Southern identities. Drawing from Mediterranean landscapes, the project reclaims these figures as carriers of ancestral, ecological, and unruly forms of knowledge.

